ANNEXURE F
PART 1

LAND USE CONDITIONS

GENERAL

1 DEFINITIONS

In these conditions, unless the context otherwise indicates-

"building" includes a construction or structure of any nature;

"business purposes" means a use of a building and/or land for offices, showrooms, restaurants or any other business or commercial purposes other than for a place of instruction, a shop, a public garage, an industry, a noxious industry, a builder's yard or a scrap yard;

"coverage" means the area of a property covered by buildings measured over the external walls as seen vertically from above and expressed as a percentage of the area of the property;

"dwelling unit" means an interconnected suite of rooms, designed for human habitation that may contain a kitchen or scullery;

"floor area" means the sum of the areas covered by the building at the floor level of each storey;

"industry" means an activity on any premises amounting to the use of such premises as a factory as contemplated in the definition of that word in the General Administrative Regulations made in terms of section 35 of the Machinery and Occupational Safety Act, 1983 (Act 6 of 1983), under Government Notice R2206 of 5 October 1984;

"institution" means a building designed or primarily used as a charitable institution, hospital, nursing home, sanitarium, clinic or any other institution, whether public or private;

"noxious industry" includes any industry or trade that by virtue of noise or effluents is dangerous or harmful to the health and welfare of the general public, such as but not limited to smelting ores and minerals, works for the production of sulphur dyes, or the sintering of sulphur-bearing materials;

"occupant" in relation to any building, structure or land, includes any person occupying such building, structure or land or legally entitled to occupy it, or anybody having the charge or management thereof, and includes the agent of such a person who is absent from the area of whose whereabouts are unknown;

"owner" in relation to a building or land, means-

(a) the registered owner,

(b) the registered holder of a right of leasehold as contemplated in the Black Communities Development Act, 1984;45

(c) a person who administers the estate of any person mentioned in (a) or (b) above, whether as executor, administrator or guardian or in any other capacity;

(d) a person who receives payment from any occupant or a person who would receive payment should such building or land be let, whether for his own account or as agent for any person who is entitled thereto or who has an interest therein; and

(e) the duly authorised agent of a person contemplated in (a) to (d) above;

"place of instruction" means land used or a building designed or primarily used as a school, technical college, lecture hall, institute or other educational centre, and includes a crèche, a convent or monastery, a public library, an art gallery, a museum and a gymnasium;

"place of public worship" means a building designed for use or primarily used as a church, chapel, oratory, house of worship, synagogue, mosque or other place of public devotion, and includes a building for public devotion, and includes a building designed for use and used as a place of religious instruction and an institution on the same property as and associated with any of the foregoing buildings that is intended to be used for social intercourse and recreation, but does not include a funeral chapel, which shall be deemed to be a "special purpose";

"property" means any portion of land or a land or a leasehold site that is registered as a separate unit in a deeds registry, and includes unsurveyed premises contemplated in section 52(5) of the Black Communities Development Act, 1984;

"public garage" means a building designed for or land used primarily for the maintenance, repair or fuelling of vehicles and purposes ancillary thereto;

"residential building" means a building designed or used primarily for human habitation and the uses permitted in terms of paragraph 8, which may include one or more dwelling units;

"responsible authority" means the authority referred to in paragraph 3;

"shop" means land used or a building designed or used primarily for the purposes of carrying on retail trade and the necessary accompanying storage and packaging, and includes any accompanying use on the same site that is incidental and subordinate to the conduct of the retail trade;

"social hall" means a building designed for use or used primarily for social assemblies, gatherings, meetings or recreational purposes;

"special purposes" means purposes for which land or buildings may be used that are not specified in these conditions;

"storey" means the space in a building between one floor level and the following floor level or between one floor level and the ceiling or roof above;

"use zone" means a zone that is subject to the restriction imposed on the erection and use of buildings or the use of land contained in Table A.

2 APPLICATION OF DOCUMENT

2.1 These conditions shall apply to any property with a condition of title that refers to it in the manner contemplated in regulation 32 of the Township Establishment and Land Use Regulations, 1986.

2.2 The provisions of these conditions shall not render unlawful any existing building that has been lawfully erected in accordance with approved building plans: Provided that alterations other than minor alterations, or a change of use of such building shall be effected in accordance with these conditions.

3 RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITY

The local authority, or, if there is no such local authority, the person or body responsible for the control of that relevant land shall be the authority responsible for enforcing and administering the provisions of these conditions.

PART 2

4 SIDE AND REAR SPACE

4.1 No building other than boundary walls, fences or temporary buildings that are required in connection with building operations being conducted on the property shall be erected without a space, free of any building or structure, between it and one of the side boundaries and also between the building and the rear boundary of the property.

4.2 The space at the side of the building shall be a minimum of one metre wide.

4.3 The space at the rear of the building shall be a minimum of one metre wide.

5 RELAXATION OF SIDE AND REAR SPACE

5.1 On receipt of a written application, the responsible authority may permit the erection of a building within the side or rear space.

5.2 Any permission granted in terms of paragraph 5.1 shall be valid for the life of the building concerned.

PART 3 BUILDING RESTRICTIONS AND USE OF LAND

6 ERECTION AND USE OF BUILDING OR USE OF LAND

The purposes for which buildings and land in each of the use zones specified in column 1 of Table A may-

6.1 be erected and or used;

6.2 be erected and/or used only with the consent of the responsible authority; or

6.3 not be erected and or used, are shown in the second, third and fourth columns of Table A respectively.

7 CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL PROPERTIES

7.1 Except with the written consent of the responsible authority and subject to such condition as it may impose neither the owner nor any other person shall-

7.1.1 have the right, except to prepare the erf for building purposes, to excavate any material there from;

7.1.2 have the right to sink any wells or boreholes thereon or abstract any subterranean water there from.

7.2 Where it is impracticable for storm water to be drained from higher-lying properties direct to a public street, the owners of the lower-lying properties shall be obliged to accept and permit the passage over their properties of such storm water: Provided that the owner of any higher-lying property the storm water from which is discharged over any lower-lying property shall be liable to pay a proportionate share of the cost of any pipeline or drain that the owner of such a lower-lying property may find necessary to lay or construct for the purpose of conducting the water so discharged over the property.

7.3 The siting of buildings, including outbuildings, on any property and of entrances to and exits from a public street system shall be to the satisfaction of the responsible authority.

7.4 The owner shall be responsible for the maintenance of the entire development on the property.

8 ADDITIONAL USES PERMITTED IN RESPECT OF RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES

8.1 The number of dwelling units and the size of a residential building that may be erected on a property shall be limited only by the height and coverage provisions of these conditions and by any applicable health and building regulations.

8.2. The occupants of a residential building may practise, inter alia, their social and religious activities and their occupations, professions, or trades, including retail trade, or the property on which such residential building is erected: Provided that-

8.2.1 the dominant use of the property shall remain residential;

8.2.2 the occupation, trade or profession or other activity shall not be noxious; and

8.2.3 the occupation, trade or profession shall not interfere with the amenity of the neighbourhood.

9 SPECIAL CONDITIONS APPLYING TO PUBLIC GARAGES

9.1 Nothing shall be stored and no repairs of any nature to vehicles or equipment shall be undertaken in a public garage, except in an area that is screened to the satisfaction of the responsible authority for such purposes.

9.2 The responsible authority may relax the restriction contained in paragraph 9.1 in a case where the property is adjacent to or surrounded by industrial uses.

10 CONSENT USE OR APPROVAL BY THE RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITY

10.1 Any application to the responsible authority for the approval of a consent use in respect of the relevant property that is listed in column 3 of Table A, shall be made by the owner of the land or building to which the application relates: Provided that the provisions of this paragraph 10 and of paragraphs 11 and 12 shall not apply to any application to or approval or consent by the responsible authority for any purposes in terms of these conditions other than those contemplated in column 3 of Table A.

10.2 The power of the responsible authority to grant its consent or its approval in terms of paragraph 10.1 shall include the power to refuse consent or approval and, if consent or approval has been granted, the power to impose any conditions that it may deem fit.

10.3 If the owner of the relevant property is in breach of a condition upon which any consent or approval was granted by a responsible authority as contemplated in paragraph 10.2, the responsible authority may serve a notice upon such owner or the occupant of the property concerned calling on him to remedy such breach, and if the relevant breach is not remedied as required in such notice such consent or approval may be terminated by the responsible authority concerned.

10.4 The notice referred to in paragraph 10.3 shall require that the breach be remedied within a specified period.

10.5 Any applicant who feels aggrieved by any decision of the responsible authority as contemplated in this paragraph may appeal to the authorised officer within twenty-eight days of the decision: Provided that, if the responsible authority refuses to give a decision on any application or delays unreasonably in giving a decision, the applicant may appeal to the authorised officer as if he were appealing against a decision of the responsible authority.

11 APPLICATIONS FOR CONSENT USE AND OBJECTIONS

11.1 Any owner intending to apply to the responsible authority for its consent as contemplated in paragraph 10.1 shall, prior to the submission of such application-

11.1.1 affix, display and maintain a notice of such application on the land or building to which it applies for a period of fourteen days; and

11.1.2 give fourteen days written notice to the owners of adjacent properties and of the properties directly across the street from the property that forms the subject of the application.

11.2 A notice referred to in paragraph 11.1 shall state that any person having any objection to the application may lodge such objection in writing with the responsible authority and with the applicant within fourteen days after the date of the last day on which the notice was displayed.

11.3 Proof of the display of the notice contemplated in paragraph 11.1.1 and a list of the owners contemplated in paragraph 11.1.2 and their address shall accompany the application to the responsible authority.

11.4 The responsible authority shall consider any objections received within the fourteen-day notice periods contemplated in paragraph 11.1 and shall, within 60 days after the expiry of such notice periods, notify the application and the objectors, if any, of its decision by delivering a copy of such decision to the persons concerned.

11.5 A decision by the responsible authority contemplated in paragraph 11.4 shall not take effect until the letters of notification to the applicant and objectors have been received by such persons as contemplated in paragraph 11.4 or, if an appeal is lodged in terms of paragraph 10.5, until a decision has been reached in respect of such appeal.

12 LAPSING OF APPROVAL OR CONSENT

If the rights obtained by virtue of the grant by the responsible authority of an approval or consent in terms of paragraph 10 are not exercised within twenty-four months of the grant of such approval or consent, or if the rights have been exercised but the use permitted there under is interrupted for a continuous period of eighteen months, the relevant approval or consent shall lapse, unless any condition upon which such approval or consent was granted specifically provides otherwise or the owner proves to the satisfaction of the responsible authority that he intends to resume the exercise of his rights.

13 SUBDIVISION AND CONSOLIDATION OF PROPERTIES

No property shall be subdivided or consolidated except than in accordance with regulation 19(5) and (6) of the Township Establishment and Land Use Regulations, 1986, and any relevant provision of the Black Communities Development Act, 1984.

14 PROVISION OF PARKING

14.1 Sufficient parking space shall be provided in respect of the uses listed in Table B: Provided that such parking space shall be laid out to the satisfaction of the responsible authority.

14.2 The responsible authority may, on application by the owner of the relevant property, grant permission for a relaxation of the parking requirements set out in Table B.

PART 4

19 GENERAL AMENITY AND CONVENIENCE

19.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these conditions, no person shall use or develop a property in such a way as will detract from the amenity of convenience of the area within which it is located.

19.2 The provisions of this paragraph shall be enforceable by the responsible authority or any other party against any lessee or registered owner of the relevant property as contemplated in paragraph 19.1.

PART 5

MISCELLANEOUS

20 SERVING OF NOTICES

Any notice required or authorised to be served in terms of these conditions may be served personally or-

20.1 by delivering the notice to any person or to his duly authorised agent;

20.2 by registered post.

21 OFFENCES

Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of these conditions shall be guilty of an offence.

22 TITLE

These conditions may be referred to for all purposes as the Land Use Conditions.
